

Regional Manager

- Emerging Australian mining company
- Targeting first production by end 2012
- Senior leadership opportunity

Mutiny Gold is an emerging Australian mining company focused on becoming a significant, low cost gold – copper producer with multiple mines.

Mutiny Gold's immediate focus is the unique Deflector Deposit where it is currently conducting resource extension and infill drilling programs as part of a Definitive Feasibility Study. Mutiny Gold will also enjoy strong growth from the exploration and development of its gold, copper and nickel tenements.

With finance and hedge facilities recently announced, Mutiny Gold is looking for a Regional Manager for their Gullewa mine sites.

Reporting to the Managing Director, this senior leadership opportunity will see you take responsibility for mine development, production and capital targets whilst maintaining the highest standards of safety, cost efficiency and strategic optimization of the OP, and later UG, mining operations.

This position operates on a 9/5 FIFO roster from Perth.

This role presents a rare opportunity to join an emerging producer from the early project stage and to make a significant contribution to the company as it transitions to producer. We are looking for high calibre applicants who meet most or all of the following criteria:

- 15+ years post graduate experience
- Holder of a WA First Class mine Manager's Certificate
- Degree in Mine Engineering
- Experience in both open pit and underground operational mining environments
- Strong financial and project management skills
- Strong people / contractor management skills and ability to build a production team
- Ability to communicate at all levels
